

Hear the marimba band— the newest thing in music

Hurtado Brothers Royal Marimba Band

Hear this marimba music! You'll be enthusiastic over it, and you'll understand why people who have heard the other Victor marimba records are calling for "more." These two new selections are presented by the finest marimba organization in the world, the Royal Marimba Band, of Guatemala. These musicians recently won thousands of admirers at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, and have now agreed to make records for the Victor exclusively.

The numbers are two swinging marches, the "Otilia" and "Guatemala-Panama" Marches, and they make an attractive record which seems sure to be enormously popular.

Victor Double-faced Record 18040. Ten-inch, 75 cents.

Victor Double-faced Record 18034. Ten-inch, 75 cents.

My Dreamy China Lady

A new song of love in China, rendered by a quartet of male voices. It makes an excellent quartet number and is well sung by the Lyric four.

These are only a few of the beautiful numbers just issued among the

New Victor Records for June

Birthday Party.

A very delightful birthday party was given from 3 to 5 o'clock Monday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Martin M. Pearlman at their home on South Chestnut street in honor of their charming daughter, Helen May's, eighth birthday. During the afternoon the children were entertained at games in the garden and at a seasonable hour dainty refreshments were served. June flowers were used in decorating the dining room. Little Herbert Nussbaum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simle Nussbaum, who was one of the guests, also celebrated his birthday Monday, being one year old. Helen May received many beautiful presents.

Those present were: Master Herbert Nussbaum, Alice Taylor, Georgia Lyons, Mary Sutter, Richard Sutter, Minnie Roberts, Hortense Evelyn Pearlman, Helen May Pearlman, Hil-da Marion Pearlman, Hazel Maxine Pearlman, Eugene Foglesong, Hal-berth Davis, George Post, Olle Day, Francis Leggett, Master Bernard Cherry, Mary Myles, Allen Straley, Glenn Straley, Millar Klein, Dorothy Klein, Harold Volk, Lucille White, Leslie White, Mazelene Harris, Gertrude Peterson, Catherine Dennison, Peggy Alexander, Dorothy Robinson, Matilda Karlins, Mary Eleanor Dennison, Mary Dorothy Post, Byron Flory and Georgia Flory.

Empire Laundry Dinner.
Having rounded another successful year's business the directors and employees of the Empire Laundry Company held a banquet at the Waldo hotel last night.

The Empire laundry started in business in 1910 and since then the growth of the concern has been phenomenal. The plant, located at the corner of Main and Water streets, is the finest in the state. The concern prides itself on its efficient and courteous employees and attributes a large portion of its wonderful success to their efforts.

L. Wade Coffman, president of the company, acted as toastmaster. He gave a pleasing talk congratulating the management of the laundry and its employees. He then introduced the Rev. Dr. W. C. Taylor, pastor of the First Baptist church. Dr. Taylor talked of the relationship that should exist between the employer and employee.

The banquet was served in the usual excellent style of the Waldo, the menu consisting of the following:

Olives, Radishes and Pickles
Vegetable Soup
Roast Chicken and Dressing
Mashed Potatoes and Dressing
Salads
Strawberries and Cream
Assorted Cakes
Cheese and Crackers

Coffee Cigars
The following were seated at the banquet tables:

Directors—L. Wade Coffman, president; Dr. C. C. Jarvis, vice president; Isaac J. Conston, secretary-treasurer and manager; Charles H. Griffin, J. H. Stephenson, Carl W. Neff, Lee Stout, N. J. Hayman, H. M. Heaver and W. L. Baker.
Employees—Shirley G. Quinn, superintendent; F. M. Kennedy, T. N. Umberger, C. J. Simral, C. E. Crim, Howard Allen, K. N. Sappington, Clyde Shinn, H. L. Cunningham, C. W. Coffman, Joseph Cobb, William Roland, B. J. Toothman, James Mitchell, Frank Flaherty, Robert Latham, Clint Riddle, J. H. Paucett, Vernon Nedro, E. W. Holden, Harley Westfall, Paul K. Thomas, Winnie Camp, Lee D. Holden and R. J. Britton.
Guests—The Rev. W. C. Taylor and W. Guy Tietrick.

Strawberry Social.
The Otterbein Sisters of the United Brethren church of Stealey Heights will hold a social in the basement of the new church next Tuesday evening. Ice cream, strawberries, cake and coffee will be served. The proceeds will go to the church fund, all are cordially invited to attend.

To Hold Rehearsal.

There will be a rehearsal of the Marcato Choral Club at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening at the First Baptist church preparatory to the entertainment Friday evening in honor of the West Virginia Education Association.

Mrs. Grogan Entertains.

Mrs. Harry Grogan in a very pleasing manner Monday afternoon entertained at her home at Norwood in honor of her sisters, Mrs. Vera Hayes, of Weston; Mrs. W. C. Spurlock, of Kansas; Mrs. C. L. Davis and Mrs. Frank Smith, of West Union; and Mrs. E. O. Okey, of this city; and her mother, Mrs. F. W. Cottrill, of this city.

MR. BURHAMER

Is as Proud of Being Father as Wilson is of Being Grandfather.

Jesse Burkhamer does not own the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, but he feels that he owns about everything else now. The stork visited his home Sunday morning and left him a bouncing baby boy. No one blames him for being so big in his ways these days. It is thought that Mr. Burkhamer will gradually come down to earth again soon. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

NO PETTY POLITICS.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
WASHINGTON, June 15.—Ef-forts to insert a plank in the Democratic platform favoring a law to prohibit federal judges from leaving the bench to ac-cept elective office will not be countenanced by President Wil-son. Administration officials let it be known today that the president had sent word to St. Louis that he did not want any petty politics played.
